

Dr Gloria Dalla Costa

Neurologist, San Raffaele Hospital, Milan, Italy

Dr. Gloria Dalla Costa, MD received her medical degree from San Raffaele University and completed her residency in neurology there. She has extensive training in treating Multiple Sclerosis patients and has followed several clinical trials according to Good Clinical Practice. She is part of the Clinical Research Unit on CNS Disorders (PI Dr. V. Martinelli) and collaborates with the Clinical Neuroimmunology Research Unit (PI Dr. R. Furlan).

Her main focus of research is on environmental risk factors of MS and biomarkers and prognostic factors in patients with clinically isolated syndromes, among which she is focusing on NfL.