

Become a leading multiple sclerosis professional

- under the academic leadership of the European Charcot Foundation and recognized active European Charcot MS researchers
- for physicians with advanced training in neurology and other MS professionals with academic background
- worldwide the only comprehensive and curricular continuing education programme in multiple sclerosis management at a master's level (M. Sc. with 60 ECTS credits)
- based on the successfully established German master's programme
- in November 2022 the first international English language programme starts

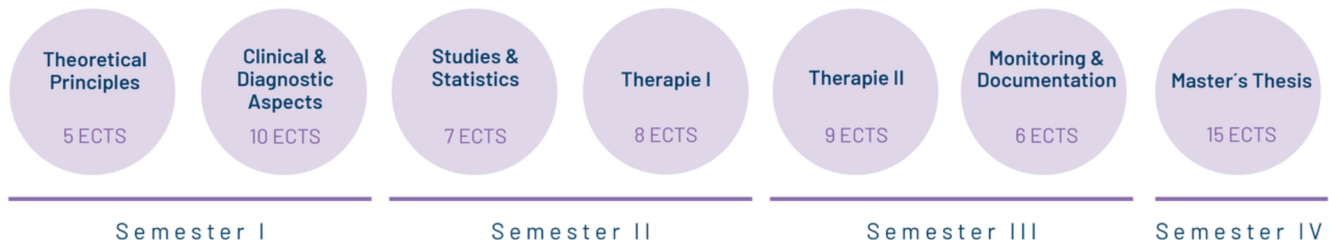

European
Charcot
Foundation

Study format

- maximum 30 international students
- a cloud-based digital hub mainly virtually in the form of lectures, expert discussions, events, tutorials, case conferences and journal clubs
- on-site meetings/sessions in selected clinics, MS centers and specialist congresses

In Cooperation with
D/IU Dresden
International
Associated Institute of the TU Dresden
University

Accredited by
ACQUIN

Aims of the master's programme

- to treat patients with chronic inflammatory neurological diseases comprehensively in their individual disease pattern according to current scientific knowledge and thus improve patient's quality of life
- specialization in multiple sclerosis management at a master's level
- prepares the MS researchers of the future

First Study Start:

16.11.2022

Tuition fees: 20.000 €

Apply for the first international intake and the scholarship programme!

Further information
Dresden International University
Freiberger Str. 37 D- 01067 Dresden
<https://www.di-uni.de/charcot-msm> charcot-msm@di-uni.de
+49 (0) 351 40 470 - 150

Book a study counseling interview:

Subscribe for our newsletter:

